Experience

Freelance / Writer Director Editor

2009 - PRESENT

I've just spent the Summer of 2015 employed as the Series Director for The Indestructibles, a major new 12x30mins action sports comedy series for UKTV. Prior to that I've been working variously as a producer, director, editor and everything in between. I've been photographed by Rankin, had a hit youtube series, directed a feature film and had a kid. As of 2012 I've been heavily focussed on fiction work, writing and directing with a view to pursuing those permanently as a career. In 2014 I codirected Afterdeath, a low budget horror written by Andrew Ellard and followed it up with a 40 minute martial arts love story, DOG. In development on an arthouse feature, a scifi thriller and a feature length version of DOG. I direct comedy as SuperMassive for Hoot, write and direct elevated genre as SCHMIDT&MEDINGER and direct commercials and straight drama as ROBIN SCHMIDT.

Chrome Productions / Founder, Director, Producer, Editor

2002 - 2009

Set up my own company in 2002 to give myself the opportunities no-one else was prepared to give me at the time. I wrote, directed, produced, shot, edited, created motion graphics and did lots of VO working across extreme sports films, TV shows, commercials and music videos.

Oxygen 107.9 / Radio Presenter

1997 - 1999

Started hosting sport then jumped to writing and presenting the daily evening news and hourly bulletins before taking over the 10am-2pm weekday slot
